Chicago/Cook County Pioneer Ancestors-Ashbel and Harriet (Dawley) Steele

Applicant/Descendant - George Edward Wooley

Julius Ashbel Steele, of English descent, was born in Derby (New Haven), Connecticut about 1794. His first wife died in 1823 at the birth of their son, Julius Augustus, in Rochester, New York. About 1827 Julius Ashbel Steele married Harriet Dawley who was born in England about 1815. The furniture which they bought at the time of their marriage, including a piano, was brought to Chicago with them in 1833. Mr. Steele rode from Rochester to Chicago on horseback, sending his family and household effects by boat. The entire family arrived in Chicago on the same day.

The Steeles established their home in Chicago, and thereafter Ashbel did not use the name "Julius." He was a mason and bricklayer. He bought land and erected his home (the first brick dwelling in Chicago) on the present site of Marshall Field's store.

That he was a man of importance is evidenced by the fact that in 1834 Steele was a member of a vigilance committee to guard against a cholera epidemic which threatened Chicago. That same year he was elected coroner of the newly formed Cook County and served four years.

Ashbel Steele had a fine team of horses and a sleigh, and two dogs with which to hunt wolves during the winter over what is now the west side of Chicago. He took with him his wife and two little girls, well wrapped up in buffalo robes. In his letters he described the thrill of the swift flight of his long-tailed team over the smooth flat surface of the snowbound prairie. The dogs roused the wolves and ran them down, the Steele family following the chase in their low sleigh.

Ashbel also told of finding "Indian ladders" which were used by the Indians in that region to climb to the tops of trees for raccoons and wild honey.

Ashbel Steele is credited with being the first permanent settler (1836) in what is now River Forest. Indians roamed the land for centuries, but in 1830 the Pottawatomies, the last tribe to inhabit this section, departed for western areas at the insistence of the white settlers who were drifting into this area. There were others ahead of Mr. Steele, but they moved on. The establishment of a steam sawmill on the east bank of the Des Plaines (then the Aux Plaines) River preceded Mr. Steele's coming by five years. This mill later became the property of Mr. Steele and a partner. The first sawed timbers for the north and south piers at the harbor entrance of the Chicago River were transported from this mill. The mill was a profitable business venture, as demand for lumber was increasing daily by settlers arriving in Chicago.

Ancestor/Descendant -- George Edward Wesley

Deacon Ashbel Steele, of English descent, was born in Derby (New Haven), Connecticut about 1794. His first wife died in 1821 at the birth of their son, Julius Augustus, in Rochester, New York. About 1825 Julius Ashbel Steele married Harriet Dawley who was born in England about 1805. The furniture which they bought at the time of their marriage, including a rocker, was brought into Chicago with them in 1833. Mr. Steele rode from Rochester to Chicago on horseback, sending his family and household effects by boat. The entire family arrived in Chicago on the same day.

The Steeles established their home in Chicago, and thereafter Ashbel did not use the name "Julius." He was a mason and bricklayer. He bought of land and erected his home (the first brick dwelling in Chicago) on the present site of Marshall Field's store.

Ashbel Steele had a fine team of horses and a sleigh, and two dogs with which to hunt wolves during the winter over what is now the west side of Chicago. Ashbel also told of finding "Indian ladders" which were used by the Indians in that section to climb to the tops of trees for raccoons and wild honey.

Ashbel Steele is credited with being the first permanent settler (1834) in what is now River Forest. Indians roamed the land for centuries, but in 1835 the Pottawatomies, the last tribe to inhabit this section, departed for western areas at the insistence of the white settlers who were crowding into the area. There were others ahead of Mr. Steele, but they moved on. This mill later became the property of Mr. Steele and a partner. The first sawed timbers for the north and south piers at the harbor entrance of the Chicago River were transported from this mill. The mill was a profitable business venture, as the need for lumber was increasing daily by settlers arriving in Chicago.

The Steele homestead comprised 117 ½ acres, forty of which were on the west side of the river. Mr. Steele erected a commodious red brick house in a clearing west of what is now Thatcher Avenue and the Northwestern Railway, which at first he used as a store as well as a dwelling.

5th

n 1840 he became the first sheriff of Cook County, being elected by the Whig party. He retained his official residence in River Forest during his incumbency of the sheriff's office and, when his term expired, resumed his activities in his newly adopted home.

In 1849 he was appointed postmaster of Noyesville (now River Forest). The post office, which served practically all of western Cook County, was first located in the Ten Mile House, a tavern located at what is now Lake Street and First Avenue, Maywood, and later moved to Noyesville.

A short while after constructing his home in River Forest, Mr. Steele moved his business from his home to Montezuma Hall, a large frame building with two wings which he erected on an Indian meeting site at the southeast corner of Thatcher and Lake Street. Here he operated a tavern, post office, general store and stagecoach stop.

The stagecoaches came crashing into town with the driver cracking his whip over the heads of the leading horses, and stretching them to a twelve-mile-an-hour gallop, bringing passengers and mail to the frontier post.

In front of Montezuma Hall the painted sign of General Winthrop Scott, seated on a white charger, was a welcome sight for the stage passengers. The store and the inn were tended by the older Steele children. Open cracker barrels tempted the transient guests, and bits of tallow candles sunk into little blocks were set on the counter to light their way to bed. Copies of the latest Chicago newspaper, "The Daily American," first published in 1839, were available for guests' reading. One night's lodging cost 12 ½ ¢, supper and breakfast were offered for an additional 25¢. A unique provision of Steele's inn was that one might have a bed for himself, instead of bedding down with any gentleman of the road. It was said that Ashbel Steele and his family always made their guests comfortable. Rum, wine, gin and whiskey washed the dust off the rasped throats, and at the opposite end of Steele's bar, a quill pen, poised in a box of shot, was a reminder to guests to write a letter home.

When the coach whistle blew, it was not only a signal that visitors had arrived but, more important, that the mail had arrived. Settlers from areas almost ten miles from the village came to receive their mail. There were no stamps or envelopes. The writer placed his message on one side of a large sheet of paper, folded it into a neat oblong with the blank side out on which he wrote the address, and left a corner blank where the postmaster would write the required postage due. Twenty-five cents was the price for the average letter from the east, but a single man had to pay an additional charge. One cent was the charge for sending a local letter.

Mrs. Harriet Dawley Steele, who was a member of the Presbyterian Church before moving to River Forest, was instrumental in organizing the First Presbyterian Church of River Forest after her husband's death. She died July 25, 1895, at 80 years of age.

Mr. Steele was first buried in a private cemetery on his own land in River Forest, and in later years was moved to Forest Home Cemetery, where Mrs. Steele is also buried, in Lot 274, Section 1. This section is designated as "the pioneer section: by the Historical Society of Forest Park. In 1995 a new monument was erected on the gravesite; the old one could not be repaired.

Ashbel and Harriet Steele had nine children, all born in Illinois. Seven of them were daughters and one daughter died while young. Their nine children were:

the same time has a progressive spirit and ready adaptability which have ever marked the American people. The success he has won is due entirely to his own labor and an analyzation of his history shows that he has placed his dependence upon the safe and sure qualities of determination and industry. He has never trusted to chance or any fortunate combination of circumstances and through earnest labor has won a creditable position as an agriculturist of Berrien county.

HENRY EMLONG, living on section four, Lake township, has through the exercise of industry, perseverance and keen business judgment developed a well improved and profitable farm. He was born in Toledo, Ohio, May 3, 1858, and when twelve years of age was brought to Lake township by his parents, Henry and Fannie (Mathews) Emlong, the father a native of Germany, born near Alsace, while the mother was a native of Switzerland. With their respective parents they came to America and were married in Toledo, Ohio, where they resided until about 1870, when they came with their family to Berrien county, Michigan, where they spent their remaining days. Mr. Emlong passed away at the age of sixty-five years and his wife when seventy-two years of age. In their family were ten children, of whom four died in Toledo and six became residents of Berrien county, namely: Emma and Mary, now deceased; Henry, of this review; Charles, who is living in Lincoln township; John, of Lake township; and Hartwell.

Brought to this county when a lad of twelve years, Henry Emlong was reared on his father's farm and in his youth began working by the month as a farm hand, being thus employed for about ten years, making his home, however, with the family. He now owns a farm of eighty acres. Twenty-three years ago he purchased forty acres and has since added another forty-acre tract just across the road, so that he now has eighty acres situated on sections four and five Lake township. Of this, sixty-five acres is under cultivation. He has given his attention to the raising of fruit and grain and has a well developed farm property. He has erected a good residence and substantial barn and has made many other excellent improvements which add to the value and attractive appearance of the place. In all of his farm work he is progressive and enterprising and his efforts have resulted in the acquirement of a gratifying measure of success.

Mr. Emlong was married on the twenty-second of December, 1886, to Miss Mary Myer, who was born in Lake township, August 24, 1867, a daughter of George Henry and Margaret (Bachman) Myer, who were natives of Germany. They came to this country in early life and were married in Michigan. The father died at the age of fifty-nine years, but the mother is still living and now makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Emlong. Unto our subject and his wife has been born four children: Pearl Mae, Clyde Edward, Ralph Raymond and Viola Edythe.

In his political views Mr. Emlong is an earnest Republican and for eighteen years has served as school treasurer. He belongs to the Methodist Episcopal church at Bridgman and to the Modern Woodmen camp, associations which indicate much of the character of the man and the principles which permeate his life and shape his conduct, making him a respected and valued resident of Lake township.

FRANCIS A. DANIELS. When the tocsin of war sounded and men from all parts of the country and in all walks of life responded to the call of the Uuion, Francis A. Daniels was among the number who offered his services to the government and followed the stars and stripes on southern battlefields. His last days were spent on section six and seven, Wesaw township, where he owned a farm of one hundred and eight acres known as the Maple Grove farm. In his demise the county lost one of its most valued and respected citizens. He was born near Detroit, Michigan, August 14, 1839, and passed away at New Troy, May 3, 1889. He was a son of James and Isabel Daniels and the sixth in order of birth in a family of seven children. Reared to farm life near Detroit, he lost his parents when still a young lad of about thirteen years. When fifteen years of age he went to Freeport, Illinois, and lived with a brother for several years. On the expiration of that period he removed to Forestor, Iowa. He had engaged in clerking in a store with his brother in Illinois and also assisted in the operation of a flour mill and he contiued in the latter business in Iowa until he enlisted for service in the Civil war, joining the Ninth Iowa Infantry as a member of Company A. He was at the front for about one year with the division under Gen. Curtis and participated in the battle of Pea Ridge and in other engagements. He sustained a bullet wound in the arm and contracted heart disease, by reason of which physical troubles he was discharged. He then returned to the north, making his home at Oak Park, Illinois, now a suburb of Chicago, and he was married at River Forest another suburb on the west side of the metropolis. Subsequently he was employed in his brothers sawmill at Ford River, Michigan, for a year and lived in Chicago for two years, where he conducted a store. Becoming ill he removed to New Troy, Michigan, where he continued the operation of a sawmill. Turning his attention to general agricultural pursuits, he purchased a farm of one hundred and eight acres on section six, Wesaw township and continued actively in its operation until his death, the Maple Grove farm becoming one of the valuable properties of this part of the county.

Mr. Daniels was married in 1863 to Miss Mary A. Steele, who was born in Chicago, her father at that time being sheriff of Cook county. Her natal day was September 8, 1840, and she lived in Chicago and at River Forest until her marriage. Her parents were Ashbel and Harriett (Dawley) Steele, the former a native of Connecticut and the latter of England. The father spent his boyhood days in the state of his nativity and afterward removed to Rochester, New York, where he was married. Subsequently he went to Chicago in 1833 and spent his remaining days in that city and in the suburban town of River Forest. His political allegiance in early life was given to the Whig party, and he was a recognized leader in its ranks and was serving as sheriff of Cook county at the time of the birth of his daughter, Mrs. Daniels. He also held other public offices, the duties of which were discharged with promptness and fidelity. He found conditions very primitive in Chicago at the time of his removal there. Hotel accommodations were very poor and there were few good buildings to rent. He erected a number of good homes there, which he afterward sold. He build twelve in one year, which was considered an extensive building business for those days. In his family were eight daughters and two sons, Mrs. Daniels being the seventh daughter and seventh child.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Daniels were born six children: Flora A., now the wife of L. A. Addison, of Chicago; Clara Louise, the wife of Solomon McKeen, of the same city; Eunice, the wife of Charles Peterson of Chicago; George, who operates the home farm; John H., who died at the age of seven years; and Emma J., the wife of Peter J. Pierce of California.

Mr. Daniels was a resident of Berrien county from 1868 until his demise. The Grand Army post of New Troy was named in his honor, showing the regard in which he was held by his comrades of the war. In politics he was a Republican but not active as an office seeker, although he was deeply interested in the success of the principles of the party. He was an earnest worker, however, in the Methodist church and acted as class leader for many years and was trustee at the time of his death. He was a man who stood high in public regard, for he was worthy the confidence of his fellow townsmen and lived a life characterized by all that is commendable in man's relations with his fellowmen. His widow still owns the Maple Grove farm and, like her husband, enjoys in New Troy and the surrounding community the warm friendship of many with whom she has become acquainted.

CIVIL WAR
The War Between the States 1861-1865

The Civil War was the most cataclysmic event in our nation's history. Roughly 2.5 million soldiers fought in it, and more than 600,000 died. All were Americans. There was scarcely a family that was left unscathed, that did not lose a husband, father, brother, or son.

In the decades preceding the war, America increasingly became a nation divided. An explosion was inevitable. It was ignited at 4:30 a.m., April 12, 1861, when General Pierre Beauregard gave the order for the Confederate gunners to open fire on Fort Sumter.

The Civil War raged for four years in thousands of different places. Shiloh, the first great battle in the West, was key to controlling the Mississippi river. Chancellorsville established new standards of battlefield tactics. The clash of the ironclads, the Monitor and Virginia, changed the nature of naval warfare around the world. Gettysburg marked the turning point of the war.

A handful of men on both sides became heroes on those and other battlefields. Chief among them were Robert E. Lee and Ulysses S. Grant, seasoned generals of fierce brilliance. Their determination was matched on the political front by the men in charge, Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis.

Hundreds of ordinary Americans provided poignant insight into the tragedies and turmoils of the war. Mary Chesnut wrote in her diary, while Phoebe Pember and Clara Barton tended to the casualties. Frederick Douglass and Harriet Tubman acted and spoke for the vast community of slaves seeking to be free.

The Civil War effected that emancipation. It brought down the curtain on slavery and the southern plantation aristocracy. As President Lincoln said at Gettysburg, it was a "new birth of freedom." The political and economic order that emerged from the ashes of the conflict reshaped and redefined America in the decades that followed.

CIVIL WAR PENSION RECORD OF FRANCIS A. DANIELS

After the death of his parents, JAMES and ISABEL DANIELS about 1852, FRANCIS A. DANIELS made his home most of the time with one of his older brothers, JOEL A. DANIELS. JOEL had been personlly requested by Adjutant General Baker to assist Capt. Julius H. Powers in raising a company for the 9th Iowa Infantry and his younger brother, FRANCIS, enlisted.

FRANCIS A. DANIELS at 23 years of age although born near Wayne Co., Mich. enrolled at Foreston (Chickasaw, now Howard) Iowa on August 19, 1861 for three years in the Army of the United States and became a private in Company I, 9th Regiment, Iowa Volunteers, Col. William Vandever commanding.

After his discharge for disability on June 3, 1862 due to valvular disease of the heart, FRANCIS returned to Chicago where JOEL was managing partner of the grocery and commission house of John Loop and Co. doing business at 30, 32, 34 and 36 South Water St., Chicago. FRANCIS "worked as a watchman as he was not able to do laboring work all the time being under the treatment of Dr. James A. Collins of 97 and 99 Randolph St., Chicago."

On April 1, 1863, FRANCIS married MARY A. STEELE, daughter of ASHBEL and HARRIET (DAWLEY) STEELE of Harlem (Cook) Ill. Her father was the sheriff of Cook County. The couple travelled to Ford River (Delta) Mich. located in the upper peninsula and from September 4, 1863 through November 1865, DANIELS was employed at a mill owned by George G. Segars. In the year 1868, the DANIELS relocated to a farm in Weesaw Township (Berrien) Mich. where he operated a sawmill and it was here that all their seven children were born.

According to his notarized affidavit dated April 22, 1885 to the Pension Board, Mr. Segars declared DANIELS "was in delicate health and given light work such as running the lath mill and boarding house by contract where he could work as much or little as he was able to choose according to the amount of help he employed" and, "that with a little overseeing, made up most all the time." His employer further stated that, "I never considered him an able-bodied man and he was continually complaining of feeling the effect of his wound and of his being in Missouri in the army. I can add that he was industrious, honest, faithful and sober. Since that time, I have known of him as being usually in very poor health, not well enough in fact to make a good living for himself and his family."

Mr. Segars also states, "I further consider him entitlted, worthy and deserving a pension from the United States government for his service-connected disability."

After the death of his parents, JAMES and ISABEL DANIELS about 1852, FRANCIS A. DANIELS made his home most of the time with one of his older brothers, JOEL A. DANIELS. JOEL had been personally requested by Adjutant General Baker to assist Capt. Julius M. Powers in raising a company for the 4th Iowa Infantry and his younger brother, FRANCIS, enlisted.

FRANCIS A. DANIELS at 22 years of age although born near Wayne Co., Mich., enrolled at Forreston (Chickasaw, now Howard) Iowa on August 10, 1861 for three years in the Army of the United States and became a private in Company I, 4th Regiment, Iowa Volunteers, Col. William Vandever commanding.

After his discharge for disability on June 2, 1862 due to valvular disease of the heart, FRANCIS returned to Chicago where JOEL was managing partner of the grocery and commission house of John Loop and Co. doing business at 30, 32, 34 and 36 South Water St., Chicago. FRANCIS worked as a watchman as he was unable to do laboring work all the time being under the treatment of Dr. James A. Collins of 37 and 39 Randolph St., Chicago.

On April 1, 1863, FRANCIS married MARY A. STEELE, daughter of ASAHEL and HARRIET (DANLEY) STEELE of Harlem (Cook), Ill. Her father was the sheriff of Cook County. The couple travelled to Ford River (Delta) Mich. located in the upper peninsula and from September 4, 1863 through November 1866, DANIELS was employed at a mill owned by George W. Segare. In the year 1866, the DANIELS relocated to a farm in Weesaw Township (Berrien) Mich. where he operated a sawmill and it was here that all their seven children were born.

According to his notarized affidavit dated April 22, 1885 to the Pension Board, Mr. Segare declared DANIELS was in delicate health and given light work such as running the lath mill and boarding house by contract where he could work as much or little as he was able to choose according to the amount of help he employed and, "that with a little overseeing, made up most all the time." His employer further stated that, "I never considered him an able-bodied man and he was continually complaining of feeling the effect of his wound and strain being in Missouri in the army. I can add that he was industrious, honest, faithful and sober. Since that time, I have known of him as being usually in very poor health, not well enough in [illegible] to make a good living for himself and his family."

Mr. Segare also stated, "I further consider him a [illegible] worthy and deserving a pension from the United States government for his service-connected disability."

The statement made by brother JOEL DANIELS on April 25, 1885, indicates that FRANCIS went to Ford River, Mich. in the fall of 1863 to look after some interests for the lumber firm of G. G. Ligoner and Co. He stayed a year or two. JOEL further stated, "Since his return from Ford River, his physical condition has been a consistant suffering, at no time being able to do a day's work. Most of the time under the care of a physician."

In 1886, FRANCIS petitioned the government for an increase in his military pension under Pension Certificate No. 307,698, stating that he was presently receiving $16 per month and that "his disease now so affects him that he is entirely unable to do any labor."

On December 2, 1889, after the death of her husband on May 3, 1889, MARY A. DANIELS petitioned the Pension Board to award her a widow's pension based on the military service and disability of her husband. At this time, an inventory of all her real estate and personal property consisted of 104 acres of land situated in Weesaw Township, Mich. valued at from $1200 to $1500, and a mortgage due in the sum of $1153. Value of all personal property including household goods was $200.

George E. STEELE, brother of MARY A. DANIELS, filed a notarized statement on October 29, 1889 certifying to the marriage of his sister and FRANCIS A. DANIELS on April 1, 1863 by the Rev. F. D. Henneway at the home of her mother, Mrs. Harriet STEELE, at Harlem (Cook) Ill. "It was a private marriage, none being present but members of the family." He went on to state that no records of the marrage remain because they were destroyed in the Great Fire of 1871. Also, at the time of this petition, the officiating minister had died. He further stated that he had no interest in the petition, "except such as a brother should feel for a sister."

On July 8, 1890, MARY A. DANIELS, aged 50 years, living in New Troy (Berrien) Mich. filed an affidivat before a notary public stating that as the widow of FRANCIS A. DANIELS, now deceased, who received a pension from the United States, that she has no means of support except by her own labor. She also states she has two minor children: Eunice E. DANIELS, born 15 September 1877 and Emma J. DANIELS, born 16 August 1879.

She petitions the Pension Board to place she and her children on the pension rolls of the United States under the Act of Congress dated June 27, 1890. Statements made by three neighbors verified that, "all the income from the above property will not pay the taxes on the place and the interest on the mortgage." They also stated that she had no visible means of support and that she had to depend on her own labor for her own and childrens living and further stated that she had not married since the death of her husband.

The statement made by brother JOEL DANIELS on April 25, 1885, indicates that FRANCIS went to Ford River, Mich. in the fall of 1863 to look after some interests for the lumber firm of G. G. Ligoner and Co. He stayed a year or two. JOEL further stated, "Since his return from Ford River, his physical condition has been a consistant suffering, at no time being able to do a day's work. She was subsequently awarded $25 a quarter (every 3 months) until her death which occurred on 7 September 1919.

He was a man of strong faith, extraordinary zeal, and always manifested that Christian character which made him beloved by all who knew him. He was always at his post; the loss to the church is one which will be hard to bear. About five years ago he was attacked with cancer of the face, and in spite of the best medical skill he gradually grew worse. During the last year of his life he was a terrible sufferer, but he bore it all without a murmur. The writer frequently visited him, and always found him cheerful and perfectly resigned. He said frequently, "It's all right; if it is my lot to suffer, I will be better by and by." He is better now. The Legislature.

LANSING, May 17.—There was no very important legislation in either branch today. The Senate passed bills providing for a bounty on wolves in the upper peninsula; authorizing the executive board to erect a cottage for the care of insane criminals; amending the charter of West Bay City; enlarging the powers of trustees of charitable institutions. The House passed bills authorizing fire protection and street lighting in certain portions of Grand Rapids township; the Grand Rapids police court bill; increasing the salary of the State Librarian to $1,200, and assistants to $900. A long discussion was had in committee of the whole on a bill to exempt mortgages from taxation. All after the enacting clause was stricken out in the committee, in which the House concurred, but the measure is in shape to call up again. A resolution was adopted for a committee to inquire into the possibility of establishing a State normal school in the upper portion of the lower peninsula, and report to the next Legislature. The Governor approved a bill for an additional Circuit Judge for Kent Circuit, and under its provisions appointed the Hon. Marsden C. Burch, of Grand Rapids, to the position.

In the matter of the pension claim No 307698 of the Widow of Francis A. Daniels for accrued pension

ON THIS 29 day of October A. D. 1889; personally appeared before me Notary Public in and for the aforesaid County duly authorized to administer oaths, Geo. E. Steele aged 40 years, a resident of River Forest in the County of Cook and State of Illinois well known to me to be reputable and entitled to credit, and who, being duly sworn, declared in relation to aforesaid case as follows:

[NOTE.—Affiants should state how they gain a knowledge of the facts to which they testify.]

That he is the brother of the claimant and was present and witnessed her marriage to the soldier Francis A. Daniels. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. D. Hemenway, on the 1st day of April 1863, at the house of affiants mother, Mrs Harriet Steele, at Harlem, Cook County Illinois. It was a private marriage none being present but members of the family. He knows that there are no records of said marriage because he was employed in the County Clerk's office after the Great fire of 1871 and these records were all destroyed. For this reason a copy of the public record of marriage cannot be furnished. She cannot furnish the affidavit of the Rev F. D. Hemenway the officiating minister because he is dead.

His Post Office address is River Forest Cook Co. Illinois.

He further declare that he has no interest in said case and is not concerned in its prosecution, except such as a brother should feel for a sister. He has none, that would would induce misrepresentation certainly.

These cold nights are causing a good deal of corn to turn yellow.

Everybody reports a good time at the sociable last Friday night.

Quite a number of our young people attended the young folks' picnic at St. Joseph.

Pennell & Co. have broken the straw stacker and have laid up from threshing for a few days.

Mrs. S. R. Smith went to Hartford Monday to spend a week with her sister, Mrs. R. G. Burlingame.

Mr. Fred Long, brother and sister, were here over Sunday to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Sheldon.

Died, at her home on Friday, the 9th, Mrs. Kate Sheldon, of cancer. Mrs. Sheldon leaves a family of grown up children and a host of old friends to mourn her loss. The funeral was held at the Brethren church Sunday. Services were conducted by Rev. Wm. Penland, of this place.

The temperance meeting at the M. E. church Sunday night was well attended. An essay on the effects of strong drink on the human system was read by Mrs. Maggie Smith. Rev. Fry made an interesting speech. Rev. Penland spoke next. Taken altogether it was an interesting meeting.

Last Friday, while Geo. Boyce's team were hitched in front of the postoffice a kite fell between the horses causing them to run away. Miss Carrie Daniels and Miss Emma Brown were horseback riding when the runaway team collided with their horses, knocking them down and precipitating the young ladies in the dust. The team passed over one of the horses and Miss Brown. No serious damage was done. The girls had a narrow escape. The wagon was badly wrecked.

Our people were highly favored this week with the presence of several leading Sunday school workers. Among the number we mention Rev. Elisha A. Hoffman, one of the most popular hymn writers of the country. We all have sung so often the hymn, "Have You Been to Jesus for the Cleansing Power," and Monday last we had the honor of meeting personally the beloved author of that hymn—both its words and its music. The Rev. Hoffman was accompanied by his daughter, a talented musician. Mr. E. C. Knapp, a state Sunday school worker of large experience, was an inspiration to us all. Mr. Washburn and D. W. Kean took an active part in our convention. In the evening session others from Three Oaks gave inspiration to the service, among these we name Mr. E. K. Warren, the chairman of the World's Sunday School Executive Committee. We were all delighted with the day and pronounce it the best convention it has ever been our privilege to attend. Come again dear friends. O. S. Grinwell, a prominent singer of Chicago, was present and delighted our people. He is a music composer of well-known ability.

HESSTON, IND.

Milly Heckman was home over Sunday.

Effie Finley is spending her vacation at home.

Mrs. Hattie Lester has gone to South Bend for a visit.

The attendance at Hesston Sunday school steadily increases.

Chas. Seward and son, of New Buffalo, spent Sunday in Hesston.

Mrs. Harriet Smith spent a few days of last week in Michigan City.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Birchim were guests of J. P. Birchim and wife Sunday.

The L. O. T. M. spent an enjoyable day at lodge Wednesday. They all proved to be natural artists in the drawing contest.

Mesdames Hannah Dougherty and Agnes Reid spent Saturday in St. Joseph.

Miss Dinnie Dickey, of Chicago came this week to stay a short time with her parants.

Mrs S. McKeen, of Chicago, is spending this week with her mother, Mrs. Daniels. ←

Mr. John Hill, of Michigan City, came Wednesday to visit his brother a few days.

Mr. Frank Pierce, uncle of James Crawford, came Wednesday morning from Plymouth, Ind.

Miss Mable Raven, of LaPorte, Ind., is visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. J. Wallace, this week.

Miss Jennie Northrup, of Niles, came Saturday for a week's visit with her aunt, Mrs. H. Pletcher.

The lecture which was given here Tuesday night at the M. E. church, was not very well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schrader and daughter Louise, of Three Oaks, visited the latter's parents, Sunday.

Mrs. J. I. Spade, of Grand Rapids, who has been visiting relatives here for the past week, returned to her home Wednesday.

Mr. Racine and wife—formerly Ethel Penwell—of Michigan City, came Sunday for a short visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Ludlum, and other relatives.

The children are preparing for a program to be given in the M. E. church next Sunday evening, June 21. Every one is welcome and they expect a large crowd.

Quarterly meeting and sacrament services were held at the M. E. church Saturday evening and Sunday, the presiding elder, Rev. Van Schoick of Dowagiac, being present.

Miss Eunice E. Daniels, of this village, and Chas. Peterson, of Chicago, were married at the bride's home Wednesday, June 17, a little past noon. ← ✓

DANIELS.—Francis A. Daniels was born near Detroit, August 14, 1839, and died at New Troy, Mich., May 3, 1889.

When but thirteen years of age Bro. Daniels gave his heart to God and joined the M. E. church, of which he remained a faithful member. He was a man of strong faith, extraordinary zeal, and always manifested that Christian character which made him beloved by all who knew him. He was a tender father, an affectionate husband, a kind neighbor and a faithful worker in the church. He will be greatly missed. He became a member of this church in 1873, and has during that time fulfilled the duties of the various offices of the church. He was both a class-leader and trustee at the time of his death. He was always at his post; the loss to the church is one which will be hard to bear. About five years ago he was attacked with cancer of the face, and in spite of the best medical skill he gradually grew worse. During the last year of his life he was a terrible sufferer, but he bore it all without a murmur. The writer frequently visited him, and always found him cheerful and perfectly resigned. He said frequently, "It's all right; if it is my lot to suffer, I will be better by and by." He is better now. He died in the triumph of the Christian faith, as only one who has lived a holy life can die. He leaves a widow and five children to mourn. His funeral was attended by a large concourse of people. The writer conducted the services, preaching from Psa. 37:37.

Short services will be conducted in Chicago Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and the burial will be at New Troy at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Frederic Williams, of Baroda, will officiate.

Mrs. Eunice Peterson

NEW TROY, Dec. 11—Mrs. Eunice Daniels Peterson, widow of Charles E. Peterson and member of a pioneer New Troy family, died suddenly at her home in Chicago yesterday as the result of a heart attack.

Mrs. Peterson was born in New Troy, Sept. 13, 1877, the daughter of Frank A. and Mary Daniels, early settlers of this community. She graduated from the New Troy high school and later became the wife of Charles E. Peterson of Chicago, where they made their home. Mrs. Peterson, however, had spent much of her time since her husband's death in New Troy and vicintiy.

Mrs. Peterson leaves one son, Ray C. Peterson, and one daughter, Miss Mary Alice Peterson, both of Chicago. She is also survived by a brother, George W. Daniels, New Troy, two nephews and two nieces. The latter are Frank Daniels, Benton Harbor; Roy Addison, New Troy; Mrs. Howard Wooley, Coloma; and Mrs. Carrie Morley, Galien.

Following funeral rites in Chicago Saturday forenoon, the body will be brought here and committal services will be held at the family lot in New Troy cemetery at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. 1952

FROM ALICE PETERSON

Q Oct. 6, 1991

Dear George & Francis —

What a nice surprise to receive your interesting letter. I learned a lot about my grandparents from it but I'm sorry I just can't help you out with any information. I wish now I had asked more questions or paid more attention to what I did hear.

No, I don't know why my grandfather Francis Daniels came to New Troy and I don't know anything about his brothers or sisters. One thing I always heard was that my grandmother, Mary Steele, was born in the Cook Co. jail as her father was the first sheriff of Cook Co. Also we are very, very, distantly related to Lady Jane Grey. She was Queen for a day and then beheaded. I saw the spot where ~~to~~ she was beheaded at the Tower of London when I was there a number of years ago.

I know nothing about the Macks but your visit to Mack Town sounds most interesting.

The last time Mary Alyce was here we went through all the old pictures I had. She took a few of them, I thought to give to you, but there were none of the saw mill or the big engines.

I don't know whether you heard that Dorothy had knee replacement surgery on July 31 and the last two months have really been rough. They discovered she had a bone infection which meant having antibiotic IV's after she got home from the hospital. I had to learn how to administer them which was scary at first. She had the last one 2 weeks ago and we were both grateful for that. She is getting around now with a cane and is able to get out to go to various doctors, hairdresser and restaurants. Progress isn't as fast as she would like but it takes time.

Sorry I didn't get over to Michigan to see everyone this summer but I just couldn't leave Dorothy.

My nephew Allan is being transferred to Florida – the Orlando area. We hate to see him go but he works for AT&T (27 years) and it is such a good deal that he can't afford to turn it down. It won't take place officially until after the 1st of the year but he has already been down once looking around at places and is going again on Oct. 23 for a week at company expense. So I'll have a place to visit and maybe can get down your way some time.

Love to you both,
Alice

Dear Francis,

Sorry it has taken me so long to get you this information. Last time I talked with Aunt Alice she gave me a gentle nudge. I have been trying several different software packages. The one I used to derive the enclosed information is Parson's Family Origins.

Quite frankly I haven't spent a lot of time learning to use it, it's not very intuitive and I hate to read manuals or help files! I don't know if you have ever hooked up with the internet or not, there is lots of WEB sites concerning genealogy.

If you need any additional information let me know. Hope you are all well and enjoying the rainy winter in Florida.

Dear Frances & George -

Your letter indicated you were planning to head South on the 9th so I hope you will receive this before you leave.

First an apology! When Mary Alyce asked me about Emma Robinson, off the top of my head I said she was George Steele's daughter. However, after thinking it over later, I'm pretty sure she was his sister - not daughter. If my memory serves me correctly, George Steele was never married and he and his sister Emma didn't get along too well. He was quite a wealthy man for those days but lived like a hermit in a little cottage in Maywood the last few years of his life.

He died in a fire and no will was found, so it went to court and his estate was divided among his sisters Mary Alice Steele Daniels (my grandmother, then deceased) and Emma. I don't know if there were other sisters and brothers. Anyway, Emma fought it but lost and the children of Mary Alice Steele Daniels each received a small inheritance (several thousand dollars). It did seem strange that a man of his intelligence didn't have a will.

I'm not sure whether Gordon Robinson was Emma's husband or son. I seem to remember Gordon went to Annapolis and they later settled in Stutguardt (sp.?) Arkansas, and raised rice. In later years they would visit the "poor" relatives in Michigan occasionally and I can remember how my mother (Eunice) and my aunts Carrie and Flo and Uncle George would all dread their coming.

The name Legare doesn't ring a bell with me at all and I don't recall hearing the name Frances Cecilia Steele. Sorry I can't be of more help. I wish now I had asked more questions about my heritage.

Hasn't the weather been glorious lately? There is quite a bit of color already but it makes me sad to think what it ahead.

George, good luck with your knee surgery. You will have time to write while you are recuperating so keep me

HISTORY OF WEESAW.

Weesaw is designated as town 7, south of range 19 west. It became an organized township in 1837, and until 1844 included Galien. The surface is generally level and the soil is varied. In some parts it is clayey, in others gravely, and a good portion is a sandy loam, equally good for farming purposes and the cultivation of fruit. The town contains nearly every variety of timber. In the vicinity of New Troy was formerly a forest of pine, nearly all of which has been manufactured into lumber. The township is well watered by the branches of the Galien, one flowing from the south and the other from the east, and uniting a little way above New Troy. Hickory Creek rises in the northeast corner of Weesaw and flows northward.

Among the persons who lived in Weesaw at the close of 1837, were Hiram and Solomon Gould, Stephen Hobart, T. A. Atkins and Sidney S. Ford, in the vicinity of New Troy. George Brong settled in the northeast corner, near Hill's Corners. The Pierces' and Hills came soon after. The family of James Stratton came into the County in 1837 and moved into Weesaw in 1838. The first saw mill at New Troy was erected by Willard, Stoner & Ames. The lumber was for a time rafted down the Galien to New Buffalo.

The population of Weesaw in 1845 was 155; in '54 it was 404; in '60 it was 753, and in '70 it was 1,247.

There are two post offices in the township—New Troy and Weesaw, at Hill's Corners. The former has a daily mail and the latter a weekly.

New Troy is a pleasant village of about two hundred people. It is a little over two miles from the station of Troy, on the Michigan Lake Shore Railroad, and five miles from Avery. It contains two saw mills, one flour mill, two general stores, one saloon, two shoe shops, two hotels, flour and feed store, wagon shop, and one church—Methodist. The enterprising people of the district are building a graded school house, which will cost when completed $6,000. Hill's Corners, or Weesaw, has a hotel, wagon shop, store, blacksmith shop, school house and a Baptist church.

HISTORY OF LAKE.

Lake, designated as town 6 south, range 19 west, constituted a portion of Oronoko until 1846. The township is divided by a strip of low swampy land which traverses it from north-east to south-west.

This portion is but little improved as yet but is susceptible of becoming excellent pasture and meadow land. The east side, bordering on Oronoko is more diversified and was settled several years before the west side.

Along the lake shore, especially in the vicinity of Laketon, is a line of hills which protect the level plains beyond from the cold lake winds. At the first election held in Lake in April 1846, eighteen votes were cast and they were cast by the following persons—Edward Ballengee, Ruel Blackman, Harmon Bean, Horace Godfrey, David Hill, Henry Hess, John Harner, Ben. Lemon, Henry Lemon, I. E. Munger, E. P. Morley, B. M. Pennell, Comfort Pennell, Wear Phillips, Samuel Phillips, Samuel Shafer, John Starr, and Jacob Vetter.

B. M. Pennell was elected Supervisor; Comfort Pennell, Clerk; Benjamin Lemon, Treasurer; Edward Ballengee, Daniel Phillips, C. Pennell and Ben. Lemon, Justices. Edward Ballengee was elected Supervisor the following year.

Laketon is the only village and post office in the township.

I.O.O.F.

Friendship, Love, Truth

While looking for items for the time capsule, I ran across several items on the I.O. O.F. doing this or that. Now like everyone else I know this be the Odd Fellows, or more precisely Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Each group has a Lodge number in the order they were established and from there it becomes complicated. Being a good historian I wanted to know more so here it is in a nutshell of a nutshell from the I.O.O.F. of Michigan website.

When or how the Odd Fellows started is unsure they just know that the fires recorded meeting of Lodge No. 9 at the Globe Tavern in England, in 1748. There are several guesses on how the Odd Fellows were formed: 1) they were a common man's Freemason Lodge to that of the nobility; 2) they were "Fellow Citizens" of Roman who were in the Legions; and 3) they were Ancient Order of Bucks. Whatever the history in England they do have a full account of the begins of the Shakespeare Lodge No. 1 organized by five "Brothers" of an English Order that established in New York City, in 1806 – their founds were 3 boat builders, a comedian and a vocalist (difficultly odd fellowship); thence starts the humble beginnings of the I.O.O.F. in America. Now the office American Odd Fellowship was founded in 1819 in Baltimore, Maryland as Washington Lodge No. 1.

Why are Odd Fellows called such, they are not really sure: 1) "The common laboring men should associate themselves together and form a fratemity for social unity and fellowship and for mutual help was such a marked violation of the trends of the times that they became known as 'peculiar' or 'odd'; and hence they were derided as 'Odd Fellows.'", this is also the official version; and 2) Odd Fellows were a group of men who engaged in various or unusual trades. I noted in my searching that there are many different versions but they are all basically the same just in their detailing.

The Odd Fellows have a Valediction which I feel sums them up. "I am an Odd Fellow: I believe in the Fatherhood of man. I believe the Brotherhood of man. I believe in Friendship, Love and Truth as basic guides to the ultimate destiny of all mankind. I believe my home, my church or temple, my lodge, and my community deserve my best work, my modest pride, my eamest faith, and my deepest loyalty, as I perform my duty's visit the sick, relieve the distressed, bury the dead and educate the orphan' and as I work with others to build a better world, because, in spirit and in truth, I am and must always be, grateful to my Creator, faithful to my country and fraternal to my fellow-man; I am an Odd Fellow."

Like other fraternities of their kind they do great works in their community; and these men and women (who can be Rebekahs) proudly mark their final resting places with emblems of their Order. If you have seen on a headstone or what is common about Berrien County 3 links of a chain, this is the symbol of Friendship, Love and Truth, the Odd Fellows' creed.

There is much, much more on the history and it's different Degrees: Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, Sovereign, Encampments and Patriarchs Militant. One can check this out through http://www.ioofmichigan.org/index.html; this site is designed for members or want-to-bes but they are very honest with their information.
